

Franklin County Board of Education Earns NCSBA Awards

Annually, the North Carolina School Boards Association recognizes board members and board clerks for their training achievements.

School board members are required to earn 12 clock hours of training every two years. The NCSBA Bell Awards for Whole-Board Achievement recognizes school boards that are working toward this requirement.

Meghan Jordan

Certificate of Achievement

(101-200 training hours)

Thomas Piper

Certificate of Advanced Achievement

(200-300 training hours)

Dr. Elizabeth Keith

Award of Distinction

(401-500 training hours)

Rosemary Champion

Award of Distinction

(401-500 training hours)

Debra Brodie

Gold Award

(801-900 training hours)

Paige Sayles

Scholars Circle

(900+ training hours)