

Class of 2022 Graduates

Franklin County Schools

Rising Stars!

Bunn High School

177 Graduates

$1,136,779 in scholarships and grants

Many graduates were awarded grants and scholarships from various institutions and organizations. Below reflects information that was collected about students' plans after graduation.

50 Graduates plan to attend 4 year college

85 Graduates plan to attend community college

30 Graduates plan to join the workforce

5 Graduates plan to join the military

Franklin County Early College High School

37 Graduates

$309,899 in scholarships and grants

Many graduates were awarded grants and scholarships from various institutions and organizations. Below reflects information that was collected about students' plans after graduation.

22 Graduates plan to attend 4 year college

7 Graduates plan to attend community college

12 Graduates plan to join the workforce

1 Graduate plans to join the military

*Numbers reflect that some students plan to work while attending college.

Franklinton High School

261 Graduates

$3,215,597 in scholarships and grants

Many graduates were awarded grants and scholarships from various institutions and organizations. Below reflects information that was collected about students' plans after graduation.

88 Graduates plan to attend 4 year college

79 Graduates plan to attend community college

60 Graduates plan to join the workforce

6 Graduates plan to join the military

Louisburg High School

111 Graduates

$2,170,567 in scholarships and grants

Many graduates were awarded grants and scholarships from various institutions and organizations. Below reflects information that was collected about students' plans after graduation.

23 Graduates plan to attend 4 year college

43 Graduates plan to attend community college

38 Graduates plan to join the workforce

5 Graduates plan to join the military

Scholarships and Postsecondary Plans

— — —

Detailed student scholarship information such as the scholarship name, institution, amount, etc. has been linked in the board agenda.

Congratulations to all of our graduates!

